

 Be like a Historian  Analyse  Interpret  Argue History Analyse Argue Interpret Themes which run through each unit: Chronology, Significant people and their impact, influence and legacy. An event, or period in history and its impact, influence or legacy on society Be like a Historian  Analyse  Interpret  Argue
Year Group	Unit Title	End Points Substantive Knowledge	Enquiry Question	How can I support my child?
1	Transport over the Years	- Children will know that changes happen over time - Know that as needs change events change too - Know that changes are often advantageous - To recognise how change happens over time - To recognise the impact these can have on society	How has Transport on land changed over time and how has this helped us?	Special days to share: London Transport Museum London Oxford Bus Museum
1	Guy Fawkes and the Gunpowder Plot	- Know that Guy Fawkes was a significant figure in history - Know that the gunpowder plot was a significant event - Know the cause and effect of the plot - Be able to talk how we know about this historic event	What did Guy Fawkes do and why?	Visit London to see: The Houses of Parliament The Tower of London
1	Significant people including Victoria, Queen Elizabeth II	- Know that these people are significant as they have contributed to national or international achievements - Know how these people have contributed to national or international achievements - Know that these people have left a legacy - To ask questions about these peoples' lives and their achievements and influence on society	How were Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth the second similar?	Visit Windsor to see: The statue of Victoria Windsor Castle Visit London to see: Buckingham Palace Kensington Palace
1	What are we remembering on Remembrance Sunday?	- Know that Remembrance Sunday remembers people that died in WW1 and subsequent wars - Know that Poppies were the first plant that flowered in France after the guns had stopped - Know that the country falls silent to remember the fallen on the 11th November - Know that war memorials were built in villages to remember men from their area who had died	How do we remember Remembrance Day?	Visit London to see: The Cenotaph Visit Flackwell and Marlow to see: War memorials